MOTHER'S DAY IN THE PARK

As Sacramento settles into Spring, have you felt a sudden urge to toss a frisbee or catch a softball? Longed to eat, drink, volley & frolic out-of-doors? Come and enjoy a Mothers Day picnic with SACWN. Mothers and children will be warmly welcomed, however (with apologies to Rover, Spot and Fido) please leave four-footed furry friends at home. Our day in the park includes games such as volleyball and softball so don't forget your favorite mitt and lucky bat. Please bring a dish to share and something to sit on so we can picnic together in comfort. SACWN will provide plates, napkins and utensils; beer, wine and soft drinks will be available for a nominal charge. Meet us at Tahoe Park on May 17 for our Mothers Day picnic celebration!

At the March meeting, Dr. Sally Wagner brought to life the 19th century feminist leader Matilda Joselyn Gage. Dr. Wagner's enlightening presentation, laced with wit and insight, was a vivid and dramatic portrayal of a courageous pioneer in the women's movement. Through Dr. Wagner/Matilda Gage, we met with our past history in a special and memorable way.

■ Successful Sacwnite:

SACWN is proud to count among its members the author Joyce Bright whose latest work has been accepted for publication by Naiad Press. Joyce has shared her talents and energy actively with our community, serving as office manager of the Rape Crisis Center and contributing articles to Mom Guess What as a book reviewer of seven years standing. Her novel about strong women overcoming fear and obstacles will appear next Spring and we look forward to its success as we applaud her many achievements past, present and to come.

We know you're out there making an impact, here's where you should be taking a bow. Inspire your peers and let us share in your career achievements. Applause and appreciation are only a phone call away. Call 678-3581 evenings.

■ Committee News:

Steering Committee

Hopefully by the time you receive this newsletter, you will have had the opportunity to attend one of the public hearings on SACWN structure. In order to get state and federal paperwork completed by the start of SACWN's fiscal year (July 1), the Steering Committee will be making a final decision at their next meeting on May 5. If you wish to attend the Steering Committee meeting call Gail at 457-4852.

Some great programs and events have been planned for the rest of the year and into 1988! To refresh your memory, the remainder of our annual program is:

- June 19 — Women of Color Panel Discussion
- July 19 — Western Theme (Sunday in the Park)
- August 21 — Sexual Harassment on the Job/ Meeting with Pillars
- September 18 — Career Networking and Development Theme
- October 17 — Annual Meeting/Dance
- November 20 — Holiday Party

current job announcements, business cards and materials certain to interest all SACWNers. The Membership Development Committee invites your contributions and attention to this table display at the next meeting. Check it out!

Newsletter Committee

"AD" TO YOUR RESUME

The Newsletter Committee is seeking a SACWNite interested in serving as the Ad Representative for our monthly letter. This position promises rewarding contact with business owners and professional individuals as well as the opportunity to gain valuable experience to enhance any resume or career portfolio. Creating brochures, rate cards and advertising outreach campaigns for the SACWN community will be an exciting endeavor for an ad-venturous type . . . for you? Call Judith at 924-8266.

■ Let's Share Shangri-Las:

We hope you'll take a few moments to fill in and return the enclosed vacation questionnaire. Results of this survey will be compiled for the benefit of SACWN travel planners and trip-takers. A successful sampling of places where we can play and stay among "friends" could encourage similar efforts by sister organizations to coordinate and publish vacation guides.

■ Volunteer Coordinator:

A plea went out through an enchanted land
For volunteers eager to lend a hand
But, ALAS, no response was yet returned
And so our noble cause was spurned
Yet the dragons of overwork and trolls of tasks undone

do fearsome remain until volunteers asked are won Certainly there must be brave souls to join our band

Please volunteer, please lend a hand.

Judith needs volunteers for the following activities (call Judith at 924-8266):

- Helpers for the May Picnic, July Barbecue and October Dance
- Members to staff the registration desk and greet newcomers.
- Someone with a word processor/printer to assist the Steering Committee
- Editor/Writer to prepare committee/position descriptions
- Legislative Beat Writer for the newsletter to cover judicial decisions and legislative bills affecting our community

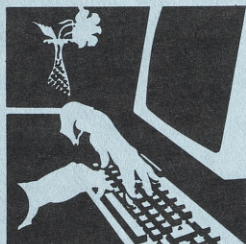

■ Announcements:

The Sacramento committee for the National March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights (October 11, 1987) is seeking women to serve in organizing efforts for this historic event. Group rates for housing and travel are also available.

For further information call Tom Harp, 736-9340, or Gerry Gomez, 447-1111.
